

United Methodist Women
West Virginia Annual Conference
United Methodist Church

Coming in 2010...

Spiritual Growth Retreat
Midweek event: April 15-16
Weekend event: April 17-18
Retreat Leader: Amy Shanholtzer
Theme: Walking in Love (2 John 6)
Place: Cedar Lakes

Mission Encounter Event
May 14-16
Scott's Run Settlement House

School of Christian Mission
July 22-24
Theme: Walking in Truth (3 John 4)
Place: West Virginia Wesleyan College

Annual Meeting
October 22-23
Keynote Speaker: Heather Murray Elkins
Theme: Walking in the Light (1 John 1:5)
Place: Trinity United Methodist Church, Bluefield, WV

Online Resources • Fall 2009

<http://www.wvumw.com/>

The new website of the United Methodist Women of the West Virginia Conference. Stay up to date on the latest UMW events.

<http://new.gbgn-umc.org/umw/>

The national United Methodist Women website provides resources and information from across the connection.

<http://www.wvumc.org>

wvumc.org is the main web presence of the West Virginia Conference. Here you will find news, downloadable forms, and information. This Fall we will re-launch the website with a new design.

<http://livingstoneswv.wordpress.com>

Living Stones is the Conference blog, providing stories and reflection on the work of the West Virginia Annual Conference.

<http://www.wvumc.org/facebook>

The Conference Facebook group provides a common place for people to hold discussion and share photos of Conference events.

<http://www.twitter.com/wvumc>

Twitter is a micro-blogging site that allows the Conference to give short updates on new resources and information available online.

<http://lyighthouse.wordpress.com>

The Lyght House is the blog of resident Bishop Ernest Lyght. "The purpose of this blog is to provide a forum for theological reflection on the practice of ministry and our living as pilgrim disciples."